Gifford Bequest International Conference: Natural Theology: Problems and Prospects

Aberdeen 26-29 May

For over 100 years the Gifford Lectures have acted as an important stimulus to philosophy and natural theology. They have been delivered in the Scottish universities by a host of distinguished thinkers. Natural theology is understood broadly as the search for knowledge of God without appeal to revelation. Topics include arguments for the existence of God and miracles. This conference is a first for the Gifford Lectureship Committees. Featured speakers are Richard Swinburne, Eleonore Stump, Paul Davies, Michael Behe William Lane Craig, Willem Drees and John Haldane. Details at www.abdn.ac.uk/cpts/gifford.shtml or from Gifford Conference, Dept of Philosophy, University of Aberdeen, AB24 3UB.
